“ Our deepest condolences to the Murphy families. She will be truly missed by so many people. Marg always seemed so happy and never missed an opportunity to stop and say hello when we would see her uptown. She had more spunk than someone who was half her age. And to Brooker. Andrea, Sarah, Meagan and Jack send big hugs your way.

A messge of condolence to Brian, Eric, and all of Marg's family and friends. I first met her in the 1950's when she and Bert were great friends of my Mom and Dad, along with her sister Vera and Art Hastings. She was a wonderful woman, and my husband Larry and I shared many happy times with Marg and Bert and their family over the years. I am looking at a beautiful sunset over the lake and remembering the good times we had with her up here in northern Michigan.

“ *Brian and Eric,
Our deep condolences in the death of your mother, Marg. She and your father, Bert, were excellent neighbours. We loved how they played surrogate parents to our dog, "Beans", even placing a red bow on his head at Christmas.*

*Our thoughts are with you.
