“ "Sister" as she was always known to me was great friends with my parents when I was young. The shenanigans were laughable, especially when some of the adults tried to steal some corn from the neighbours corn field. They sure had a fun time when the family got together. It was "sister" who nicknamed me "Catin" because I was so tiny when she first saw me as a baby. I've always felt a connection with her. I'm so sorry for her loss.

“ I remember Aileen from my childhood, she always had a smile and time to talk. As an adult may times I drove my Grandmother to see Aileen, they would laugh and talk about old times and things they did. After Grandma passed she still always was involved with my family, a kind word a smile and a good conversation was always a given when we stopped for a visit.
Rest well Aileen you deserve peace and to be reunited with all your old friends and with Roger.
