“ I have so many fond memories of family visits to Uncle Berts shack with my dad (Len). The adults visiting around the tables, us kids playing in the yard. When we came in from the heat we got to take a bottle of coke out of the coolest coke cooler around - to showing up at our family campsites with a van full of bakery items and opening it up to let us kids in to pick whatever we wanted. You always treated all the kids with love.

The 'Bechard' cousins always loved spending time at Uncle Berts'. There were plenty of us..45 in total.. along the neighbourhood kids.... the large backyard gave me so many fun childhood memories .. also wonderful family reunions with games for all ages. One year I remember winning a nickel for a hula-hoop contest. I was so excited!!!!!! Rest in peace Uncle Bert.
