“ Dear Peggy, Marty, Linda, Alex & Kristen

We will always remember Bert as a very special man who was kind and gentle to everyone he met. Rod said that he was like his second 'Dad' growing up and fondly remembers 'almost living' at Bert & Peggy's home (and falling asleep many times on the living room floor while watching TV with Marty) ...

We also remember Bert as being such an incredible 'handy man' who could build anything he put his mind to (and worked on many vehicles too)! He was also an excellent listener. He spoke so softly; never harsh or angry and was such an incredible family man too with a heart of gold.

We will miss Bert very much! He will remain in our hearts forever! Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this very difficult time.

“ Peggy and David:

It has been many years since our teenage years in Wallaceburg and we often lose contact with people who were part of our lives. It is life events such as this, sad as they may be, that brings back old memories. Knowing people still remember and care may in some small way ease the burden of your grief.

“ Bert was so friendly, warm, helpful, and would and could do anything! That is my everlasting impression of the Bert I knew from our time working together at Wallaceburg Hydro. Any handy work that needed to be done, he could do, and he was always so pleasant in handling our problem issues: like if one of us office girls needed a shelf built or a different set up at our work stations -- Bert could always solve the problem. He made each of us some finely-detailed "cat" knickknacks, which I to this day proudly display in my home. I was so pleased whenever I ran into Bert after his retirement, he was always the same friendly, mannerly gentle-man Bert - no matter how he might be feeling, he always gave the impression that it wasn't so bad. He will be missed. It seemed in his 'spare' time he was making gadgets and contraptions and beautiful, wonderfully crafted woodworking projects for his family. My condolences to Peggy and the kids: he always spoke so highly of you, and I know he was both a great husband and a great dad!
