“ Amos was a friend. His hospitality is memorable to my family. I spent much of my younger days in and out of his home. He and Gussie were the most gracious people you can know. On one occasion my family was able to repay hospitality. He visited Piikani Nation (Blackfoot) in Alberta. I remember how the Lord touched his life during a service where his uncle (by marriage) was ministering. I believe that experience stayed with him. I'm saddened to hear of his sudden passing from this present life. Lord Jesus, Savior and King, minister to his wife Gussie and his children and grandchildren.
