“ Dear Ron, Darlene, Judy , Nancy and family. Thinking of you during this time!
I have so many fond memories of Aunt Anne, from my sleepovers at the farm house when I was a little girl. Also our beautiful boxing day gatherings at the sisters houses . Which turned into a larger Punnewaert Christmas party at the hall. Where I was always greeted with a glorious smile from your mom. P.S I always loved that she called me Pamela. And oh my, her lemon bars!!! She would always offer some for me to take home, as she knew how much I loved them! I will treasure my memories!

“ Dear Ron, Darlene, Judy, Nancy and families, Our thoughts, prayers, love, and hugs go out to you all, at the passing of dear Aunt Annie. I was blessed to have such a wonderful Aunt, who was also my Godmother. So many wonderful memories of visits at her apartment along the river, and many more of times together growing up. We were always welcome to visit and play with our cousins, share a meal, sleep over, just experience life on a farm. She will be missed, and remembered fondly with a smile, of many good times together.
