“ Jane and Audrey’s Family, saddened by your lost but grateful to know your mom is now resting with her Saviour. I had the pleasure of her conversations and worshipping with her at Fairfield before Covid. I remember once when she needed some assistance coming in from outside. I proceeded to help her with her blanket and a book but by then she’s like “stop all your fussing I am fine” I had to laugh and say “okay, enjoy your day I’m off to visit Sandra”. It was always nice to greet your mom when I stopped by to visit other dear sisters in Christ. May you feel your Lord’s presence and peace as you all say your goodbyes for now. As we do not mourn as others do for we have that blessed assurance we will truly see Audrey again. Jane and family, I am sorry that in this world we must say our goodbyes which ultimately brings sadness of heart.
