

Barbara Debergh

April 2, 2025

With peaceful but heavy hearts we announce that on Wednesday, April 2, 2025, Barbara June Debergh (nee Turner) was reunited with her beloved husband Dr. Gabriel Debergh at the age of 91. She will be loved and cherished by her children Cynthia Robson, Melinda Debergh and Douglas (Fay) Debergh as well as by her grandchildren of Anessa, Sarah (James Newkirk), Eric (Elisha), Jonathan, Kyle and great grandchildren of Connor, Leah, Lynnea, Logan and Brynlee. Fondly remembered by her brother Richard (Sharyl) Turner and their son Steven (Sandra) Turner. Cremation arrangements have been entrusted to the Haycock-Cavanagh Funeral Home, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg (519-627-3231). Gabriel and Barbara will be laid to rest during a private ceremony at Riverview Cemetery in Wallaceburg. It you wish to make a donation in their memory, please consider Your Local Minor Hockey Association or the Chatham-Kent Hospice. Cherished stories and tributes may be left for the family at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca

“ Dear Cindy, Douglas, Mindy and family, I was heart sore to receive Douglas's call today. Decades of friendship celebrated with laughter, shared meals, shared stories, and occasionally tears. Aunt Barb meant a lot to the Lovell family.
In these past few years, we shared phone calls to keep abreast of current family shenanigans. We send our love. In sorrow and sympathy, JoAnn Lovell-Kristoferson and family

Dear Cindy, Doug and Mindy, Jo Ann has shared the passing of Aunt Barb with our Family this morning and we would like to send our Heart Felt condolences to your entire family. Aunt Barb and Uncle Gabe always held a special place in our Hearts even though life took us in other directions. Loving Hugs from your entire Lovell Family to all of you, sincerely, Michelle & Al & Family
