“ My condolences to your family on the passing of Basil. As I have recently heard this sad news, my first memories were how Basil was such a much appreciated and highly valued friend throughout our school years, especially the WTLang WDSyears. We shared a lot of great times in class whenever we could, which were actually quite a few. I always thought His attention to detail with his sharp dress fashion reflected his suave kewl persona...way ahead of his time! I particularly remember the bandana neck scarf worn a little off to the side...a kind of "Chester Cheeto-esq" swagger as only Bas could pull off! He kinda had that Nicholas Cage coolness going on, again, way ahead of his time... I loved it!!! That is a fond memory of this guy for me. He made me laugh all the time and definitely made me smile whenever I saw him heading my way!
Tho time and distance separated our lives as it often does it seems, I have nothing but loving thoughts and good wishes for your next phase. Travel well dear Basil! I'm sure you'll be lookin guud!
Sent with Love, and sincerest condolences.
