“ For Betty, her struggle is over. She is with our Lord. For Bill, Betty's family and friends, the reality of being without Betty has just begun. I pray that each of you will hold fast to one another, and our God.

“ I first got to know Betty when we belonged to the same bowling league. She and I have also belonged to the same birthday group for years now. Betty, you were a happy, fun to be around lady, and it has been a pleasure to call you my friend. I will miss you a lot. Rest in peace, Betty, your struggle has ended and you have earned your wings.

“ I was a little girl. I'd already been flower girl to my big cousin Theresa and her new husband Jim. It was so romantic. And then my cousin Betty was getting married. Of course I was only able to sit in the church and watch the ceremony but I have never forgotten how my little girl's heart felt when I saw Howard look at his bride with such love that I knew someday I wanted someone to look at me the same way. Betty had that way with people. Making them love her and wanting to be around her. Her hubby Bill had that look as well. She was a very special person indeed. Heaven is blessed to have her.

“ Dear Bill, Jane, & Michael and family
So sorry that Betty had to go but in heaven are lots of angels that she'll know
The card game has started and she wouldn't want us to be broken-hearted
So we'll have a beer and to her we'll give a toast that she'll hear
Because the sound of her laughter is what we're after
A great wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin, and niece
May she rest in peace.
Love Always
