“ I've always remembered Bill as such a nice and respectful guy. When Collette and I were roommates, he wanted to take us to the movies and we saw "Dude Where's My Car." He bought the tickets and snacks. We offered to pay, but he insisted that it was his treat. I hung out with Bill twice this past month and he was still the same sweet guy that I remembered from long ago. We enjoyed his humour and conversation. My deepest condolences to Collette, Joanne, Kim and family. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I remember when Billy was a little guy, running around and playing in the pool in his backyard or his grandparent's backyard. Then I didn't see him again until a couple years ago upstairs at the arena during a Red Devils game. I knew right away who he was, because he looks like a younger version of his Uncle Kenny. Such a sweet guy. Such a huge loss for his family and friends. My heart goes out to you all during this difficult time.
