“ I was saddened to hear of Brad's passing. For those of us who grew up in VLA - and Walnut Drive in particular, I know we all share fond memories of Brad. There were massive games of tag through the neighbourhood on Friday nights, trips to the forest at the end of the street, obtaining your Christmas trees from the Martins, and of course the fact that we all attended one another's Birthday parties where you were on the hunt for the elusive penny in the Birthday cake.

Walnut Drive was a wonderful place to grow up as a kid - because of neighbours like Brad.

Eric, Sally and family, may your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together as you celebrate a life well lived.

“ I got to know Brad on a TD LOE trip. We sat beside each other on the plane, and quickly bonded. That was just the type of guy he was...friendly, calm and easygoing. We frequently ran into each other on the 19th floor of the TD tower, and he always had a smile on his face. You will be greatly missed ❤️

“ To Brad's Family - I have worked with Brad for many years at TD and am so incredibly saddened by his sudden passing. He was one of a kind, a rock solid guy who knew his work well, had a great sense of humour and was a good friend to visit with. We had many, many chats about rural life and I will miss those immensely. My prayers are with you during these difficult days. For Brad -- simply said, you are missed greatly. “ I met Brad in the elevator at the TD towers months ago when interviewing for a role on his floor. We briefly spoke and he sincerely wished me the best of luck. I remember waking away thinking what a sincere soul. When I went for my second interview we connected again just a couple weeks ago. Again he wished me all the best and again I walked away with such a positive feeling due to interacting with such a loving caring soul. God Bless you Brad

“ Brad, you were not supposed to leave us at such a young age. I will always remembers the times we experienced together, enduring and laughing at the terrible management at the time. I will miss seeing on walks around downtown London at lunch time. The cool facial twit you alway had when not pleased about something was a trademark Brad.

Listen buddy, I know we are all destined for the same fate, yours just came too soon and way too suddenly.

All the best Brad, in whatever lies ahead of you.

“ My condolences to Brad's family during this time,

I was fortunate to work with him a different points in my career and I was struck by his humble, kind, and calm personality. A subject matter expert in his field, he was always ready to help his colleagues and I consider my self fortunate to have had the opportunity to work with him.

May the Grace of Christ be with Brad's family during this time. Brad, fly high with the Angels brother, you've ran the race and ran it well, now it's time to rest my friend.

I knew Brad's family well, they were so active and contributing to the community, especially in Cubs and Scouts and at the Trinity United Church which Brad and Eric attended faithfully.

Ya know, you couldn't be a part of the Boy Scout movement in Wallaceburg and not know Brad and his Dad Tom. Hauling out the canvas wall tents and bell tents from the Trinity Green Room storage space, coordinating the guys and loading the vehicles, camping at Wadiscoca, Attawandaron, Kenesserie, Rondeau, longer range canoe trips in Algonquin and up to Moosonee. Very fond memories indeed. Brad was always one to happily pitch in. I had lost touch with Brad and some of the gang from those days, and I am sorry to hear of his passing - my condolences to your family, Brad.

I was deeply saddened to read about Brad, he and Eric were two fine men from the town, what a wonderful family, so active in Scouting and in the United Church, Brad, Eric and parents too. The hours that the family must have contributed to volunteer work is beyond belief. They were liked by everyone and live the values that we all should live. I used to see Brad in downtown London and he always said hello.
