

Brenda Shipman-Williams

January 5, 2022

Brenda Lee Shipman-Williams, a resident of Walpole Island First Nation passed suddenly on January 5, 2022 with her loving family by her side. Daughter of the late Alger and Violet Shipman. She is predeceased by her late husband Wallace Williams Sr. and will be always remembered and missed by her children Nathaniel Shipman (Ashley Stonefish), LeeAnn Shipman, Leslie Paramo, Erica Storie and the late Natasha Shipman-Storie as well as her grandchildren Taylor, Aiyana and Nate Jr. Missed by her siblings Elizabeth Shipman, Torrey Jacobs (Gary), Helen Smith, Stewart Shipman (Michelle Aquash), Randy Shipman (Terri Anne Summers), Vaughn Shipman, Brian Shipman and the late Pat Shipman and Ken Riley. She was loved greatly by her extended family and her many friends. Community Visitation will be held at the HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg, on Tuesday, January 11, 2022 from 2-6pm. Due to Covid-19 restrictions, a Private Family service will be held at Walpole Island Sports Complex followed by burial at Highbanks Cemetery. Masks and social distancing are mandatory. Shared stories and tributes may be left on the tribute wall at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca

“ I will always love and miss u momma so much my heart breaks to even write this. I'm still in disbelief that I will never get those morning calls to check up on me or all them cruises we took together you sure loved your car rides and all the memories we made. I'll remember everything u taught me and to be the best person I can be. And u taught me to be strong and be there for family and just be a kind person. And if I learned anything it was life is short take it day by day never say Bye say see u later and always always tell your loved ones u love them. I'm gonna miss you mom ...we were bestfriends for 37 yrs u told me when u had me u got your best friend I'll cherish all our memories forever and ever...til we meet again mom fly high in the sky with Natasha and your Husband. Xoxo gonna be missed but never forgotten. Your first born daughter and best friend. "LEE"...LeeAnn Fairen Shipman. 💔💔💔😭😭😭😭😭😭
