

Caleb Aquash-Smith

May 9, 2025

With the heaviest of hearts, we must announce that Caleb Taylor Aquash-Smith, a member of Walpole Island First Nation passed away suddenly on Friday, May 9, 2025 at the age of 22. Beloved son of Fallon Aquash (Lesal Crmwell) and Nathaniel Smith. Dear Brother of Evelyn, Brayden, Cherish, Ashton, Mykyra, Malaki and Makai. Cherished grandson to Jewel Aquash, Darryl Smith and Grace Shipman. He will be sadly missed his many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Caleb served as a member of the Canadian Army Reserve.

Family and Friends are invited to gather at Highbanks Cemetery (Walpole Island) for his graveside service on Thursday, May 15, 2025 at 1pm. Services are under the care of the Haycock-Cavanagh Funeral Home, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg (519-627-3231). Cherished stories and tributes may be left for the family at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca

“ It was an honor and a pleasure to serve alongside Caleb in the Army. He was part of my section during basic training, and from the very beginning, his presence brought energy and laughter to even the toughest days. We shared some unforgettable moments from late night drives, windows down, music playing, to simply enjoying each other's company.

Rest in peace, brother. You will always be remembered.

“ Caleb came to live with us for a couple of years. He was a part of our family outings, was positive in where he wanted to go in his life. He loved hanging out with his friends and was sociable when you met him. We will miss him so much. May his spirit soar around us.
