“ Carol Sherwood loved Christmas time. I remember many she would come to Toronto and her son Richard and I would go shopping with her. She would help Ric decorate his place and loved every minute of it. One year we went to Mirvish Theatre to see “ White Christmas “. Carol was my second mother and I will miss her tremendously. Richard, William, Sue, Yuri and Dan, my deepest condolences to you all for your loss. Believe me, I know what it is like.
