“ I saw Aunt Kate about 10days ago when I was visiting my mom at the nursing home...she was in pain but still had a wee smile when I spoke with her...she always had an encouraging word for mom when they were in the Seniors residence together.....
My mom will miss her....
I have fun memories of going to Kate and Uncle Lorne's farm when I was young..
may fond memories of good times with her comfort you “ Sincere sympathy to the family. I am a first cousin to Lorne but unfortunately didn't get the opportunity to know them well, although I do remember Kate as a kind and gentle lady.

“ Kate would always wave Jason and I into their farmhouse for milk and cookies while pullin wagons to and from the fields while Ed or Lorne was combining with their old Gleaner Combine. She was observant, witty and just full of quiet laughter. What a wonderful and grand lady. She will be missed. My deepest and warmest regards to Ed, Betsy, Bun, Vick and Cuzzy and all their family.
