I will miss our nose-y neighbour; always looking out for the neighborhood. A truly amazing woman with a heart of gold. Well Wayne, you have some big shoes to fill. I guess it's you that's going to have to run down your driveway shouting directions to me while I'm trying to back the trailer into the driveway!

This world will miss you, and will be a shade darker, it will mourn the loss of a bright soul. Go now to your new home. A paradise that can and will only be brighter because of you. You are loved and missed.

“ She was a very funny beautiful lady and will be missed sorry for your loss Wayne and Kim. Hugs to you both. One memory that I have and will share to help lighten the mood and give you a chuckle is when she went to alter my dress for Carol and Dad's wedding. She was chuckling and I asked her what was so funny and she said I hate to say this but I'm not sure what is the front or the back. We both laughed and laughed. She is now a bright star in the sky watching down and if you see that star dancing you know she likes what we are doing. Carrie and Will Durance

“ My life without you in it will never be the same. You have been in my life since childhood. You have been a sister to me and have always been there for me. Who will I go to now when I need help with a recipe or help me with my crochet or knitting patterns since my Mom has been gone. All the memories keep playing in my mind like a movie on TV. Sleep well with the Angels my sister cousin. I love you forever. Give Mom and Aunt Bernice a hug from me.

“ I met Catherine years ago sewing diapers and clothing for Haiti through the Stitchers of Hope (Knox Presbyterian Church) . Her talents were without question and her passion for helping others evident . Through our sewing time I learned about her love for Wayne , her daughter Kim , grandchildren and great grandchildren . She opened her heart to those around her easily . Catherine had a wonderful sense of humour and an uncanny ability to create her own words . I am a better person for knowing Catherine . To Wayne , Kim and family , I send my true condolences . RIP Catherine , May your seams be true and your seam ripper be used infrequently .
