*God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
So he closed His arms around you
And, Whispered, "Come to me"
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your gentle hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best,
In tears we saw you sinking,
We watched you fade away
Our hearts were almost broken
You fought so hard to stay
But when we saw you sleeping
Peacefully and free from pain
We could not wish you back
To suffer that again
So keep Your arms around him Lord
And give him special care make up for all he has suffered that seems to be unfair
So many times we need him
So many times we cry
If love could have saved him
He NEVER would have died.*

“ I have not seen Chad in 20 years, since leaving the 'Burg. Growing up next door to him (childhood friends) I can remember playing "guns", tag, and especially those bike rides to Tupperville for those French fries. Those times well spent. Chad was a good friend. My thoughts are with him and Jodie. Jodie be strong.

“ Our sincere sympathy goes out to all the family. One memory I have of Chad was when his Mom passed away & he sat on the basement stairs crying by himself. I came along and spotted him. When I spoke to him, he sobbed that he "just wanted his Mom". Now our good Lord has put Chad & his Mom together. Rest assured their reunion will be great with no more pain or suffering. Keep strong all of you during this difficult time.

“ Jodie,
During this time of grieving and sadness, keep turning to God.
Let God help wipe away your tears and heal you wounds.
He promises "The Lord be close to the brokenhearted and save those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18)
I am so sorry for your loss. You and your family will be in my prayers.
