“ Being neighbours with the Mills as a child was like having extended family. I remember how strong chuck was with his bow and arrows. He would draw back his bow and shoot that arrow straight up until you could barely make it out. Chuck was often out with Chuck Senior in their back yard air field flying their home built aircrafts. I was fortunate to have known him.

“ Mandy has been like a sister forever.. Which means I got to hang out with chuck now and again too! He accepted me not just as a friend of his daughter's, but as part of the family immediately. I never saw him sad or angry. Always had that big smile. He was always kind and always laughing. He will be missed. A unique and lived man by his family and friends. Bless you guys! Praying for your broken hearts. Here if you need anything.

“ I have known Charlie and Dudley and family for many years now since they lived on Reaume Ave. in Wallaceburg. We went to the DA Gordon School together, swam in the Sydenham and grew up as neighbours and friends. We then lost touch over the years. I can still see Chuck and Dudley on Halloween night trudging up Murray Street way before dark carrying their pillow cases trigger treating for candy. They got a really early start and got to the best places ahead of us. They knew where the Candy apples were. Many good memories. My sincere condolences to Chucks entire family.
