My mom knew him to because she is an employee at K-9 klips and he would go in there to see the animals and I would see him at Tim's all the time. To the family, if you are reading this I am so sorry :(*

“ It is touching to read the tributes to Chris. My thoughts go way back to when Chris was much younger. Darlene would help him into Grandmas so he could see what was going on. He was so strong then, he always beat me in the arm wrestling. In his adult years it is clear he found meaning in the town, befriending so many, and showing concern for those he knew. Jill and Ron I am unable to be in Wallaceburg to honour Chris this week – but my thoughts are with you. I will never forget Chris, his courage, and what a special Dude he was.

So strong, he always beat me in the arm wrestling. In his later years it is comforting to know his friendly nature and concern for those he knew, have endured him with so many in the town of Wallaceburg. Jill and Ron I am so sorry to not be in Wallaceburg to honour in Chris' life this week, but my thoughts are with you, and I will never forget what a special dude Chris was.*

“ Us McNaughtons lived next door on Murray St. to Chris for yrs. Chris was born the same yr as my son Jeff at SDH. Chris never had an easy life . We watched Chris grow up. Chris was a fighter and never gave up. He was always seen up town, cold weather hot weather, wet weather trudging along chatting with people.

When ever I saw Chris he was friendly and had a positive attitude even with his disability.

Almost every one in town knew Chris. I think he had his daily routine from Dufferin Ave, , down James Street and home. I always admire him for his positive attitude.

We will all miss you Chris in your daily travels.

RIP my friend. You are with your Mom ,Darlene now.
