“ Dear Family: It has been many years since I have seen Chris. Her sister Mary was my best friend and when Chris's mom and dad would go out to see Chris we often tagged along. Mary has been gone along time I know now that the two of them are rejoicing to be with each other. Blessings to all. May she rest in peace.

“ I have such great memories of both Charlie and Chris when they served as caretakers at Trinity United Church. They were wonderful people, faithful and kind. Chris loved to joke and had a little wrinkle in her eye. I pray that you are comforted in knowing that her long struggle is over and that she is at peace. - Cheryl Kirk, retired minister of Trinity United Church.
