“ We're probably distant relatives of the Palocz family from Hungary. We can remember our mother(passed away in 2017) saying that two of our grandfather's brothers immigrated to Detroit. I ,Tünde Palocz and my sister Ilona Palocz would like to express our deepest condolences to the family Palocz. There's a book "A jo palocok" by Kalman Mikszath in Hungarian literature ,which means "good paloc people".

“ Querida familia, desde Chile queremos decirles la inmensa pena que sentimos por el alejamiento físico de Chris en nuestras vidas. Dios se lo llevó a una edad muy temprana pero permanecerá en nuestros corazones y pensamientos por siempre.
Un hombre muy querido por su mujer, hijos, familiares y amigos por sus extraordinarias cualidades.
Compartimos en diferentes momentos de la vida en su tierra y en la nuestra, y pudimos apreciar que estábamos frente a un hombre sencillo y tremendamente cariñoso buen esposo buen padre y mejor amigo. Los que te conocimos te vamos a extrañar mucho. Los momentos compartidos dejaron tu huella impresa en nuestras mentes.
Que Dios te reciba como te lo mereces y que desde el mas allá ilumines a tu mujer y a tus hijos.

“ Sylvana, Braden, Alexandra, Amanda and the rest of the Palocz families. The last two years of Chris life when he got sick is when I meet him. Wish I had got to know him sooner. He was definitely a provider for his family. He was a class one business man who cared about his customers. He took a lot of pride of those dump trucks that I drove for him, whether it was a clean unit or something being repaired and maintained. I always got a chuckle when Chris was on the phone, I would say “ How are you Chris” and his response was always “ GOOD GOOD”. That’s pretty much how I would describe Chris the family man and boss “GOOD GOOD”. RIP CHRIS

“ The absolute best brother-in-law one could possibly have. Kind and gentle full of life.

Chris lit up every thanksgiving dinner. He would walk through the doors after harvest time, he would sit ,greet as all, smile and say in his special voice ‘Well, isn’t this nice” He would lead us in prayer, eat and go back to work. Always so thankful of his family and happy to be sharing a meal. We will miss him dearly this Thanksgiving. To my beautiful sister, Braden, Alex and Amanda....we love you and we are so blessed to have shared so many good times with Chris. He was one of a kind and the only thing that I could think of why God would have taken him from us too soon; is that God needed and Angel upstairs!

Our condolences to Helen, Ray and Jeff.

We love you Chris!

“ To Helen and the Palocz family,
Deepest sympathy and be assured of our prayers.
Last year Palocz red trucks were seen daily on Regent Street in Blenheim.
I waved and wondered if he knew we were cousins.

“ To the Palocz family,

Your husband and dad was truly one of a kind. I have had the privilege to have so many conversations with him. He was always kind to me and good to our company. I truly will miss him and grieve with you as he was taken too soon. The last conversation I had with Chris I was giving him a hard time because he owed me a breakfast but because of Covid we said we would wait till it was a better time. I am sad that we will not get to have that breakfast. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers as you prepare to say your final goodbyes.
Much Strength,
