“ In preparation for a presentation of music from Walpole Island in support of Stoney Point, Azhoodenaa, and the ultimate sacrifice made by Dudley George at the Renegade Jamboree, a life long bond was born manifest in the form known as The RezErection. Separated geographically by various circumstances as life does sometimes, the bond like brothers remained. Some years later Chris would send me some demos of the music he'd created with hopeful expectation of lyrics and melody and of course, I answered the call. Out of our collaboration birthed a new creation we entitled Tribal Dissonance. In this artistic original expression, may we live forever with all who hear. <https://www.reverbNation.com/tribaldissonance> RIP my brother. Baamaapii minwaa... Until we meet again.

“ My sincere condolences to Chris's family and friends. My heart goes out to his children Tessa, Tyler and Aden. I met Chris when he dated my Sister, Nicole (Dolly). Together they made me a first time Auntie. I know that Chris loved his children so much. I am forever grateful to him because he loved, cared for and cherished my Niece and Nephew. Chris, I pray you travel well. Miigwech for all you've done for your young family. Until we meet again, journey well.
