I remember when Cody and His brother lived in Trillium Apts. on the 3rd floor over looking our back yard. They always would call down to us when they were out on the Balcony, "Hi Uncle Bob & Aunt Gayle". Cody would often come over to the yd. for a cold drink and to just talk about things, or let off some steam. We really missed his visits when he moved. We loved Cody as if he was one of our own. To Cody, you have shed your demons and may you soar free and high with the EAGLES. We love you and will miss you always. Rest In Peace.
