“ Just to advise the loved ones, friends and family.

We had Courtney cremated after the funeral services.

When Court was 18, she and two of her friends came for a drive to Toronto with Kim and Myself. We did the downtown cruise, Yonge St, Lakeshore Rd. We did the whole downtown area, took us a few hours to see all the old places we used to take her and sister Amber when they were younger and where her mom and I met..Etc,Etc..

We stopped in Long Branch to show Court and her friends where Kim and I first became a couple and our first home together where we lived on 36th St.

At the end of 36 St where it met the lake, (about 200 feet from where Kim and I lived) there is a group of large boulders that her and her friends could walk 100 feet out onto the lake, from that point you can see the full shot of the lake side view of Toronto. CN Tower, Ontario Place..Etc..Etc..

Courtney put her hand up in the air and exclaimed,

"THIS IS THE PLACE I AM GOING TO LIVE MY LIFE!"

Well, she finished college and Toronto is where she moved to and lived after that.

Kim, Amber and Myself, in the future will be taking Court back to Toronto, the city she loved so dearly.

Once again we want to thank you all for what you have done to make this time period in our lives, a little brighter place.

We Love You Court.

Thank You.

“ My deepest condolences to Charles, Kimberley, Amber, family and friends. I will never forget all the times Courtney would visit our home and share laughs with my daughter Melissa. I would have a big old grin on my face as I would hear the two of them giggling as they were preparing for a night out. Truly, my heart aches for your loss. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I am sending my Love to the Cadeau Family!! I am so sadden by this lost of a amazing soul!! Thank you Courtney for making me feel important in the small time we knew each other!! Courtney was so Loved by everyone and very popular in High school!! I was a neighbor to Courtneys sister Amber back in 2006!! Amber and I would have our moments back then as neighbors, Courtney being the protective sister and Aunt, we did not see eye to eye at first when we met!! As time went on, I got really close to Amber and family!! Courtney would always stop in at my work at the market and gave me at least 10mins of her time to catch up! Showed me photos of her at Western! The last time I seen her, I told her I was so proud of her becoming into a wonderful smart young lady!! Courtney , you will be sadly missed by everyone who knew you!! I am so happy I am comforting your sister just through messenger as she Grieves the lost of her baby sister!! Rest in Peace my sweetness!! Love Salena xoxooxoxo

“ Send my love and prayers to the Cadeau family during this very difficult time. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. Courtney was an amazing loving soul and she loved to laugh. She enjoyed life. Courtney was a great friend to me when my brother passed away suddenly and I will always remember that she was there when I needed to chat and cry. She provided good laughs and good times and I will miss her deeply.
I have a strong faith in God, and I truly believe that you are riding your bike with your starbucks in hand watching over us.
