“ Cynthia (Mom)

It was so hard to see you with so much anguish, discomfort, and sadness in the final weeks here with us. You were my Queen, my inspiration, and like a Mother to me. I miss you so so much already. I can't call you all the time or visit you to have some laughs any more. You will always be in my thoughts and in my heart. I know you are Dancing with the Angels as you are reuniting with your Mom, Dad, brother and beautiful Chris. This I am happy for you and I pray you will be nothing but happy. Love you forever, until we meet again.

“ Dear Jayne and Chris and stokes family, so sorry to hear of the passing of your mum. What an inspiration Cyn was. Your mum and dad was so good to me when I delivered their mail for many years, always at the door checking to see on those hot days if I needed water etc....I would sit and reminisce about the good olde days with them. They truly are caring people. May Cyn Rest In Peace. X

“ Mike and I became friends with Cynthia many years ago when my sister, Roberta met Mark. During a conversation with Mark years ago, I remember him saying to me “My mom is the kindest person I know”. Such a beautiful comment from her son, and so very true! Cynthia has been one of the kindest, gracious and most caring person I have had the privilege to know! Very very English too! Cynthia has left a legacy for all to admire and love! May you dance with the angels Cyn! Love you! Until we meet again...

“ Oh my heart breaks. Cyn was the most lovely woman, kind, caring, loving. I always looked forward to our “visits” at the salon. We often dreamed of how much fun we’d have if she took me home to England with her! I’m am deeply saddened by the loss in our hearts but so happy for her that she is with our glorious God right now. May you all find comfort in the Hope of Jesus 🙏❤️ knowing you will be with her again someday. God bless ❤️

“ *To Our Dear Mom, our Matriarch.
Your home became a place of confinement, your body a place of pain and anguish, but finally now you are free so fly high and never look back, and know that where ever this journey takes you, someday we will meet again, and even though we are apart, know that those we love never truly leave us, they stay in our hearts, and we carry them with us always. We love you Mom. Jayne and Chris.*
