“ Elizabeth and Doug, Mary Kathryn and families, please accept my condolences. It is always a terrible time for a loss such as this, but the times and restrictions we currently live in make it so much worse. I'm thinking of you now and always. I enjoyed wandering around your memorial garden at Trinity last summer.

“ Sincere sympathy to Mary Catherine, Elizabeth and Doug on the loss of your brother, and brother-in-law, I knew your mother from high school days before we were married, and kept in touch with her up until she died, I also knew your grandparents as your grandfather knew my father both being farmers and our farm was on the fifteenth concession now called Corktownline and your farm was on the next road over.

“ Dear Mary Catherine, Elizabeth, and Doug,
I was sorry to hear about Darcy. Although we had lost touch with him over these last few years, we remember him fondly from when our family visited your family. We appreciated that he was very friendly and welcoming to Carl and me at your weddings. Please accept our sympathies and let's try to keep in touch. Your mother was a great friend of mine all through high school, Teacher's College, and our early marriages. She struggled bravely with one cancer or another and your father seemed to make other friends, but we can still correspond.
With our love and condolences,
Marian Shaw and family, Sarnia

“ Even though it has been almost 40 years since I last saw him, I was deeply saddened to hear about Darcy's death. We started school together at D.A. Gordon and met again in high school. He had a great sense of humour, smiled easily and laughed a lot. The girls all loved him.
Please know that I am thinking about his family at this difficult time. I hope he has finally found the peace that seemed to evade him in life.
Rest easy, Darcy.

“ Darcy was such a great guy! It's been forever since we saw each other, but every time we ran into each other he always made me laugh my butt off. I had some crazy and fun times with him when I was younger and I'll never forget how fun and hilarious he was. Such an adventurous and fun-loving guy. I'm so sorry to hear of his passing. My condolences to the family&friends who are grieving.

Father, I would like to raise up Darcy in prayer. I pray that you receive his spirit and welcome him into the kingdom with open arms and a massive hug. I also would like to say that I can't wait to see him again in heaven when my time comes to pass. In Jesus name, I pray. Amen!

*Much love, Darcy!

“ Our hockey team did not win many games, but we had a lot of laughs and created a lot of lasting memories together. In the centre of those laughs and memories was Darcy. He had a tremendous gift for making us laugh and make the long drives back from Leamington seem a little shorter. Rest In Peace old friend, see you on the other side. Jeff

Darcy would drive past our place and we would always wave to each other, but understandably he and I were both busy with farming, so there was no time for chitchat. One day his combine lost the engine fan belt. I gave him a ride home that day and we had a very nice conversation and got to know each other a little better. It was our 1st and only conversation, but I truly did enjoyed talking with Darcy. So sorry for both yours'... and our loss.
