“ Dave was my second true childhood friend. We met the summer before grade 4. If you were looking for Dave, Bill Gray, or me, all you had to do was find one; we were inseperable virtually until high school. Other than back yard camp-overs, or just hanging, one of the best times, although scariest, was one Friday evening when Dave & I went with his mother to Chatham; her, to work at the William Pitt Hotel, us, to the movies! We were to meet her at 11:00 at the hotel lobby when she finished her shift. About 12 Dave got mad that she wasn't there yet. (She got tied up & somehow we missed the message that she would be working late) Dave decided we were heading home, so off we went out St. Clair St. & onward out 40. We caught a ride with two 18-ish aged guys who turned off 40 into Dover Twp. We really started worrying when the pitstop wasn't our choice! Thankfully it was for beer from the trunk & we all had a laugh at being asked if we wanted one! We were dropped at the CIBC & made it home by 1 am. Scared us both enough that the next afternoon we promised a very pissed Regina that we would never hitchhike again! We were 14. I could write a short novel on the times the "Three Amigos" or "Three Stooges", depending on whom it was & when it was that we were being referred to by. Thanks Dave, you were a true friend that I'll always cherish having known.
