“ Deanna was a beautiful person... someone who made an impression upon my family that will last our lifetimes. She was fun and generous, treating our kids like royalty as they inspected every inch of Beaver Barn looking for great hidden treasures back in the day, working with Jack to negotiate the price of something found down to just pennies so that the kids would be sure to enjoy the experience, and sure to return (which they always did!). Deanna is a girl you always remember, and will be terribly missed. Our condolences to the Forgie clan.
