“ It saddened me to hear of Deb's passing this week as she was a person that took great interest in my achievements and always offered words of encouragement to me. She never failed to give me that big bright smile filled with her care and compassion. Deb was always there for me in good times and bad, she was like a second mother to me. I just want to thank my good friend Brandon, John and family for allowing me into their lives all these years to share many laughs and good times with Deb and I will miss her dearly. May Jesus give you the comfort, peace, and joy to get you through this trying time and bring to remembrance the many wonderful experiences Deb gave us all here on earth.
