“ Growing up in Wallaceburg, my brother Bill and I were fortunate to have many neighbours who cared enough to watch over all of the kids in the neighbourhood. Diane was certainly one of those guardians and I was sorry to hear of her passing yesterday. Unfortunately, I am unable to extend my condolences in person tonight to Pat, Lori, Rhonda and their families. Please accept my deepest sympathy on the death of your mother. May God grant her peace and bring comfort to you all. You are in our prayers and I am sure you are in the prayers of many. Sincerely, Carrie and Fred Maxim.

“ Pat, Lorri, Rhonda and families.

Our condolences on the passing of your mom, grandmother and great grandmother. Diane is one of the most caring and kind people I have ever met. She always worried about everyone else before herself. The world has lost a wonderful person, but heaven has gained a beautiful angel. She will be missed by many.

Our prayers and thoughts are with you and your families during this difficult time.
