“ *Our deepest condolences to Jeannette and the Mann family. You could never be blue when you were in the presence of this gentleman and his wife and his brother Alan. We had the privilege to meet and travel with them and the rest of the Hornet Oldtimer Hockey team and my memories are many and full of laughter and love . Donnie Dear getting my drivers licence renewed has been boring since you retired. Even that was a hilarious experience. You will be sorely missed but everyone in Heaven is in for a real treat. Don and Al are together again . Be prepared for the rumbling of laughter. Thank you for the memories my friend. Rest in peace. We are only a phone call away Jeannette. Love to you all

“ Don's passing is the end of an era for me and many more my age.

Don was always very congenial , helpful and friendly when dealing with me and many more at the licence bureau. It just seems like yesterday one would go into the garage and there would be Frank and Don working.

Don was the fastest two finger typist that I have ever seen. He sure could bang out those driver's lic. permits in quick fashion on that old typewriter.

I am sure Don will be missed. My sincere condolences to Jeannette and his entire family'
