“ To Bill and family, sorry for your loss. As you know Joan and I spent many good times together with your family. Hockey games, barbecues, Expo 67 and many more good times. Unfortunately we are in Halifax visiting Brian and his family so we were not to attend service and renew old times. All the best to all.

“ Edie and I really enjoyed Doris and Bill's company. We had coffee many times at Timmie's and went out to the Bay for breakfast on some Sundays.

I would get a kick out of Doris when she would crack Bill back with some dry comment that was funny and so would Bill in turn to Doris. I can still see them holding hands while they walked out to their car. It was truly nice. Very good people indeed .

Going to miss you Doris.. We will take good care of Bill for you. I am sure you are looking down at us and you are in a better place now.

Our sincere condolences to the Hill Family.
