“ Dorothy was a very sweet little lady. She shared a table with my mom Alice and it was the best thing ever. They would chat and laugh neither really understanding the other but we appreciated her kindness. Mom always looked forward to seeing her in the dining room. RIP Dorothy. We are forever grateful to you.

“ Fond memories of my Aunt Dorothy. Whether visits to her home on Bona Vista Crescent, seeing her around town, or stopping in during my high school lunches at Charlie 7 for the Hamburger Special, she was always just so wonderful. Rest Peacefully. Sending sincere condolences to the entire Mallette Family.
