Thanks so much. I was offline for a while and just had a chance to catch up on the posts from after the time we moved to sarnia. The kids are doing ok. David and Sarah are at St. Patrick's high now, Marie is moving here soon as well and Irene is married and living in Petrolia, so we are all closer together. They miss their dad a lot but it is good to know that people care. Hugs

I`m very sorry to all of you for your loss. I didn`t know until late last night. Ted was a good man. I remember walking by there everyday on the way to or from school or to a friends, and he would always be sure to say hi. He will be missed but always remember, he is never `gone`. He is just ahead of you on the road to happiness waiting for that day when you can all be together again. He will be watching his grandkids grow up, and his kids live each day not wanting any of you to be sad and hurt. He would want to be remembered as the man he was, not the man who is gone. I`m sure him and Nana are up there right now bickering about something :P Please feel free to get ahold of me Judy if you and the kids need anything.

*Don't think of him as gone away-
His journey's just begun,
Life holds o many facets-
This earth is only one...
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.
Think how he must be wicking that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost-and he was loved so much.
In Loving Memory Of Edward "Ted" James Beresford
R.I.P. Uncle Ted*
