“ To Eleanor's Children and Family:

Eleanor was kind, supportive, the absolute epitome of class and grace, and has been a role model to me since the day I began work as a young RN at Lapointe-Fisher Nursing home. It's probably because of her that I held on to the values that she quietly left wherever she went in the course of her administrative days in Nursing. She was more than her job. She was a life mentor of the finest kind. People mattered to her beyond all else. I could see that, even at twenty years of age, and she taught me so much, including how to laugh! She once tipped her office chair over backwards while she was speaking to me, and rather than being embarrassed, she laughed SO hard that I forgot why I was even in her office in the first place. Thank you Eleanor. I will remember your life lessons, laughter, and beautiful smile always. With deepest respect, and condolences to your family. Rest in peace ...

“ Very saddened to hear of Eleanor's passing. I have many fond memories of both visits and tennis games in Wallaceburg with her and Clare. She was a woman of style and grace whose lovely demeanour made all those around her very comfortable. She and Clare made a wonderful couple, as well as loving and caring parents and grand parents. My best wishes for the entire family as you cope with her loss. Grant Browning

Scott, Sandra and Devon It is with sincere sadness we learned of Eleanor's passing. I went to high school with both Eleanor and Clare and loved both of them very much. Eleanor was always a strong lady with a great sense of humour and a great laugh. We were able to visit them in Wallaceburg a number of times. They attended our wedding 56 years ago and many stories emerged from that experience! Please know our hearts are with you and we consider it a real privilege to be able say we were friends.

“ I was fortunate to grow up with the Maltbys as neighbours, and I thought of them as an extension of my own family. The memories of fireworks and New Year's celebrations spent together will stay with me forever. I will miss Ellie's presence very much, as I know many people will, but she and Clare will always be remembered. Both were role models in so many ways. John & I send love, prayers, and support to your family.

“ To the Maltby Family: So sorry to hear of the passing of your mother! She was such graceful lady, even throughout her struggle with declining health! Her kind and gentle nature too, was always present. Both your parents had great honesty and integrity, which always shone. May they now be reunited again. We miss both of them from our circle of dance friends. Rest in peace Eleanor.
