“ Grandma was an amazing lady. She loved to dance, tease and laugh with friends and family. I am so blessed to have had such a strong woman and influence in my life. She gave me my first rum and Coke at age 13, taught me to fire a rifle at 12 and consistently accepted me for being different and creating my own path in life. She always told me she was proud of me and loved me. I am so grateful to have had such an outstanding person in my life who played a key role in the woman I am today. I will miss our late night chats about life, but I know you are up in heaven playing some great tunes and asking the hot gentlemen to dance. I love you Grandma!
