

Elizabeth Reek

January 7, 2023

Elizabeth Grace “Betty” Reek (McEvoy) of Port Lambton, passed away peacefully at the Oak’s Retirement Home in Wallaceburg on Saturday, January 7th, 2023 at the age of 97. Betty was born on the 6th Concession (Point Line) in Sombra Township in 1925, to Frederick & Theresa (Reedy) McEvoy. Predeceased by her beloved husband of 49 years, Edward ‘Ted’ Reek in February of 1999, and loving mother of Larry Reek (Louise), Kathy Donahue (Don), Karen Corr (Larry Trepanier) and Doug Reek (Lyrissa Seney). Dear grandmother of Tammy, Terri, Sean, Robin, Jody, Jamie, Megan, Ashley, Hunter and Alora and great grandmother of Mitchell, Brady, Brooke, Paige, Bradley, Luke, Samantha, Kaia, Taylor, Haddie, Connor, Nolan, Mya and Hudson and great great grandmother of Aria and Josie. Betty was the last living McEvoy sibling. Predeceased by the late Dan McEvoy, John McEvoy, Catherine Myers, Tom McEvoy, Marie Green, Agnes Bradd and Pat McEvoy. Betty grew up on the family farm, and happily lit the fire every morning at the local catholic school. She also enjoyed playing cards, and attending the Sombra and Port Lambton dances. She had worked at Prestolite, Schultz, Libby’s, Luster and Dura Chrome until she retired. After she retired she easily slipped into a loving grandmother role. Grandma loved making pyjamas for all her grandkids and was always eager to have them over for sleepovers, baking and sewing lessons, fort making, Coke floats, playing euchre and 31(counts as points!). She also loved shopping, drinking coffee and getting her hair done for church. She was a lifelong member of the CWL; her Catholic faith was very important to her. She was well known for her apple pies, chilli-sauce, pickles and peanut butter cookies. She will be thought of daily and greatly missed by all. The Funeral Mass of the Resurrection will be held at Sacred Heart Church in Port Lambton on Tuesday, January 10 at 1 PM with visiting at the church in the hour prior. Haycock-Cavanagh Funeral Home 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg is entrusted with the arrangements. If desired, donations to Canadian Diabetes, The Canadian Cancer Society or the Heart & Stroke Foundation may be left at the funeral home in her honour. 519.627.3231. Cherished stories and tributes may be left for the family at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca

“ Hi Cousins. I am so sorry that I cannot be there with you on Tuesday. I send my sincerest condolences. I hope that you find comfort in each other's love. It is so hard to say goodbye. Aunt Betty was fun! We shared some really good chuckles over the years. I cherish memories of her no-nonsense approach to life that was so beautifully woven with humour and love of her entire family. The tribute video brought back many memories and more than a few tears. Hanging out in her back yard during Gala Days, eating a slice of her delicious pies, drinking her somehow better than anyone else's coffee, laughing, hugs and hearing her call me Cathy-Babe are just a few of the things I will dearly miss about Aunt Betty. Big hug to all of you.

“ Oh Karen, I'm so sorry for your loss. Betty was a pleasure to come into the salon on Friday mornings, with her chatter and smile. I remember the day she came in with two different shoes on, lol, and we got a good chuckle out of that as she laughed at herself. You were always the kindest most patient daughter. I'm sure you have great comfort in knowing that she is with our amazing God and enjoying being reunited with her family in heaven. God bless ❤️
