“ Full of life, full of laughter and a great sense of humor. Always generous, and compassionate...that's how I remember my dear friend Ellen. She has a beautiful voice, and so talented in whatever she makes up her mind to do. I will miss her laughter the most...we would laugh until our tummy hurts so much, or have run to the bathroom lol... My heart is sad to loose her, yet very grateful that I met her. She was a dear sister to me and I am so thankful to God that our paths crossed. Heaven had surely gained a beautiful angel. Love you Ellen. Our love to Frank, Greg and Choo and the rest of the family. Mele and Family.
