“ John, Ken, Dave, Rob and Chris and families, I am very sorry for the loss of a wonderful Mom. I am sure that raising 5 boys was a very challenging and exciting task for her. I remember when we picked tomatoes for your family, how the boys would load the tomato baskets every morning early before school and again directly after school. You boys made us laugh every day and your Mom and Grandma too. After all the loads were full you boys all made music in the coop or shed and we thought what a happy go lucky family this is. One played the accordion, one the drums, another the guitar. What fun you all had and your Mom was a proud Mom. And I am sure that she was proud of all of you till the end -and also of all her grandchildren. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you as well as with her brother Bob and sister Annie. Elsie-rest in peace.
