“ My condolences to Jack, Dianne, Doug and families.
"Flo" and Jack were very good friends of my father Lloyd Babcock and spent many good boating times together. The memories will always be cherished.
Kindest Regards

“ Grandma, its hard to believe your gone, its still very surreal, its all happened so fast. You are the strongest lady I know and put up one heck of a fight with not one complaint, you never complained.. but it was your time. I learned so much from you, you taught me so many things, I can only hope that I will follow in your footsteps and be half the women you were! I love you grandma rest in peace
