“ I have known Fred for over 45 years and we shared many laughs together. I remember when he wanted to become a hairdresser also. My ex husband Lee Williams and I were with Fred and his then wife Gloria in Corunna 41 years ago the night before my son was born. We lived on Blackwell sideroad at the time and they told me I better get home as I was ready to have the baby. My husband could not drive as he had too much to drink so I ended up driving our Volkswagon home. I did not know how to drive a stick shift so it was quite the ordeal. Every time I think of Fred I remember that story. Rest in peace my friend...you will be missed by many.

Fred was my neighbour in Corunna. In 1998 Fred and I drove to California and as the old saying goes, you never know someone until you travel with them. We became great friends. I will miss "The Newf" forever. Ride on my friend and thanks for showing us how to live!

“ Wow! Thirty-two years of rocking & rolling and sharing and riding together, my brother. As Lee White so eloquently put it, "We're two of a four-man team now". I'm halfway from Mexico, and thinking of all the good times over the past twenty-nine hours driving. The tears are not for you, Freddie, because no one lived such a life. The tears are for me - because we did not get one more ride together, mi amigo. :)
