Gaye was one of the kindest, generous and unflappable people I've ever met. She was such a steady person, the calm in the "storm" at many dog shows, just happy to do her thing. Gaye was such a dedicated dog lover, and very under-estimated in the depth of her early influence in shelties. I think Gaye was just overly modest, and that made her all the more loveable. I will miss you, Gaye. Thank your for sharing those beautiful Annie kids with me years ago - you taught me more than you know!

“ I first met Gaye and her two sisters back in the late 70"s. Each of the girls had a dog they were showing I believe they were a collie, a Bearded Collie and Gaye with her sheltie. Never saw Gaye outside of the dog show world but always enjoyed our chats and seeing her at the shows.

I will miss those chats. Always pleasant Gaye was one of the nicest and kindest people I have had the pleasure to meet and her presence at the shows will be missed.

My sincere condolence to her family.
