“ Poem I wrote for my grandmother.

*In my Rose Garden of memories
I see you standing there An angel in disguise
Who taught me how to care
I long to hear your voice for real not in my dreams I am missing you so much these days how empty my world seems People say time heals all wounds that someday the pain will subside But Grandma I can tell you
I think they must have lied
The emptiness I am feeling now is strong and I am weak These days go by without you so dreary and so bleak
In my Rose Garden of memories
I know you'll always be for though you're gone from this mortal world In my heart you'll always be*

“ my memories of Aunt Gina go way back. Aunt Gina was more than just an Aunt to me, she was also my Godmother. Aunt Gina shared all my sacraments with me and always had the answers to all my many Blake family questions when it came to the family trees at school! She always made me feel special. Unfortunately I will not be able to attend her funeral in person but I will be there in thought ❤️ My condolences to the family on their loss of a very special lady!
