“ I remember Glen, from the many times i waited on Glen when I worked at State Farm here in town. He was easy to get along with. What sticks out in my mind is, that no matter what health issues he was going through, he rarely complained; just took things in stride and kept going. He also did a lot for his community. May he rest in peace. Our condolences to his family. Ed & Odra Riedl

“ I have nothing but good memories of uncle Glen. I always respected him for his knowledge and experience in life. My best memory was when I was a kid, he drove us to Detroit to a monster truck show at Joe Louis Arena. Good times.

We'll all see him again soon in a new world when "death will be no more" Rev 21:3, 4.

My full love and condolences to aunt Florence and the whole family.
