Joyce and Family

We were sorry to hear of Glen's passing. I have many memories of time spent in the Workman home as a teenager and later as an adult, my wife and I enjoyed times of fellowship with Glen at Zion and at Maplegrove.

I know Glen will be greatly missed but I hope the love provided by family and friends and the knowledge that Glen is with his Lord and Saviour will comfort you in this time of loss.

I sympathize with you Joyce in the passing of Glen, too young it seems to be taken from you.

Wonderful though to know that he is with the Lord.

I pray that God will give you comfort and His Peace at this time.

Lovingly

My deepest condolences to you with the death of Glen.
I was shocked when I got to Meadowview yesterday and saw a candle in Glen's memory.
May God continue to give you all you need as you continue on in life without visiting Glen and dealing with all that you will go through without him.

“ Dearest Joyce, Steven and Kerubo, Jennifer, Kenneth, grandkiddos siblings, family and friend's.

Glen will always remain in my mind as a quiet, gentle, Godly man. He was willing to share his faith in music , sharing his testimony and would smile always. He was a proud, and loving man, when it came to his wife, children and grandchildren. I will never forget seeing him running down the road at Maple Grove after Nathaniel and Nehemiah, who were on bikes. He said he forgot how much faster they escaped when the grade of the road declined so fast. He was one very attentive and caring Grandpa.

When news came of Glen's home going came, I believe God gave me a picture in my mind of Glen standing hand in hand with Anita, walking with Jesus, (both standing tall, radiant and well) singing " When all my labours and trials are ore', and I am safe on that beautiful shore, oh to be near the dear Lord i adore, will through the ages, be glory for me. Oh that will be, glory for me,.... when by His grace i shall look on his face, that will be glory, be glory for me". I know Glen is well and whole, enjoying Jesus and Anita like NEVER before.

Joyce, our heart hurts for you. You have been an amazing, loving, faithful wife and caregiver. May God embrace you in His loving comfort, and care, giving you healing and rest as you journey through this loss. Love and prayers, Bruce and Cathy L

“ Always enjoyed going to Glen's big house when we were preteens. He had miniature train sets that were always fun. Horses were an integral part of his life and I admired his riding skill. Music also was central to his life. Our lives divulged in later years mainly due to distance but we would see each other in Sombra occasionally. Joyce and Glen visited us several years ago in Deep River which Brenda and I have called home for 45 years. In his humility there was strong inner strength. We will miss him.

“ Our sincere condolences Joyce, Steve & Kerubo, Jennifer and Kenneth and families. Glen's quiet manner and gentle smile will always be my special memory of him ... well that and he's one of the few who continued to call me Janny whenever he saw me. :) May you be comforted in knowing that he now is resting safe in the arms of Jesus and spending eternity chatting, laughing, loving and probably singing with his sweet Anita. Sorry we can't be with you at his celebration of life as we're away, but will be with you in spirit. Sending hugs and prayers your way.
