

Gordon Childs

July 6, 2022

It is with a heavy heart, that we announce the passing of Gordon Lyle Childs on July 6, 2022 at the age of 86. The son of Clinton and Mary (Davidson) Childs, Gordon is survived by the love of his life, Francis (Furtah). Gord and Fran started their life in a small apartment in Blenheim before moving to Wallaceburg in the late 50's. The two were married for over 65 years, travelling the world, and living life to the fullest. From their humble beginnings on Wallace Street, to their backyard home on Bruce Street, to Water Street and the upstairs apartment, the coffee pot was always on, and the door was always open. Dad and mom were great hosts and loved company. Gord is survived by his son Mark (Deb), daughter Michelle (Barry), and his two daughters-in-law, Dianne, and Theresa. Gord was brother to Don Childs (Berneida) and his sisters-in-law, Mary Childs, Margaret Furtah, and Marlene Watson. Predeceased by his son Michael, his brothers Morris, Ern and Harold, sisters Evelyn, Marion and Helen and in-laws Gerald Babcock, Jim Smith, Lloyd Eves, Mildred Childs, Helen Childs, Jack Watson, and Ron Furtah. Gord is also survived my seven grandchildren, fifteen great grandchildren and dozens of amazing nieces and nephews and their spouses. Dad had many careers during his life, starting with a job as a meat cutter at Joe's Meat Market in Dresden. From there, he went to the Taskey Supermarket in Amherstburg, landing eventually to Hazzards Meat Market in Wallaceburg. Dad started with Metropolitan Life in the late 50's, switching to State Farm a short time later. Dad's biggest move came when he convinced mom to buy the Primrose Gardens. To help ends meet, dad drove school bus and a chip truck while growing the business. The Primrose led to Fran's Catering, which led to the purchase of the Oaks Inn in 1984. Gord was an avid sports fan, cheering for the Cleveland Browns and the Cleveland Indians (now Guardians) most of his life. He had the pleasure of meeting Bob Feller once, and the picture of the two of them is on display at the Goose. Gord was born in Dawn Township, just outside of Dresden. He was the youngest of 8 children and spent a great deal of his time with his older sister, Evelyn. Gord was an excellent student, skipping not one grade but two, leaving school early to pursue a career in the food industry. Gord was always up for a game of euchre, crib, and, at one time, poker. Tuesday poker nights at the Primrose often continued into the next morning. Another passion of Gord's was baseball. Whether playing or watching, he loved the game. He loved stirring up trouble at the ballpark, often getting tossed from the game. Back in those days, you had to arrive early to find a seat. The bleachers were always full. Perhaps the biggest passion of Gord's was helping the community, friends, or family. Dad and mom started the Salvation Army luncheon back in 1969. The Hearty Soup Luncheon followed years later, along with dozens of other philanthropy projects that he and mom were involved with. Dad was a founding father of the Wallaceburg Sports Hall of Fame and over the years, contributed to hundreds of worthwhile causes. He was a coach, a mentor, an advisor, and a man that was not afraid to speak his mind, but most importantly he was a husband, a father, and a grandfather. As his health deteriorated, he was more concerned about mom than he was himself, claiming it was no longer fair to either one of them. His final wishes were simple: Look after your mom, stop all treatment, and get me home to pass. The look of joy on his face when he was being brought into the house was remarkable. The odds that he would see his birthday were not good, yet this man fought right until the end, with his family by his side as he drew his final breath. Many people come and go, but no man is, or ever will be, as unique as Gordon Lyle Childs. Rest easy dad and say hi to Mike and the rest of the family. Love Fran, Mark, Michelle,

Dianne, and our families. Due to the number of family and close friends, the funeral service and celebration of Gord's life will be invitation only events. The HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg has been entrusted with the arrangements. If desired, memorial donations to the Salvation Army may be left at the funeral home 519.627.3231. Shared memories may be left at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca

“ Most sincere sympathy to all the Child's family. I remember as a youth learning who Gord Childs was. He was the owner of the Primrose Gardens just around the block from my house. A coach/sponsor of my big brother's baseball team, Fran's Catering. Then the owner of the Oak's Inn where you always chose to go for a special occasion to celebrate. Gord you are what represents Wallaceburg to me and your family certainly continues your legacy. May the stories and the memories you have of Gord help you through the days ahead. RIP

“ As John Mathany stated.

“There will never be another Gordie Childs Gord was a bigger giver and contributed than a taker.

Years ago my wife Edie and myself wanted to venture out to Florida for the first time.

One day at lunch time I went to the Oaks to ask and learn more about where to go in Florida. I knew Gordie had a place in Florida Gordie was sitting at a table with his regulars (John may have even been there)

I was invited to sit with them and Gord told me where his place was at Cooper’s City in Florida and how he liked it there.

Without hesitation or even asking Gord reached into his pocket and handed me his keys to his condo there.

He told me it was mine for a week with no questions asked.

The only stipulation was to replace anything we used , booze and all.

Will never forget his generosity and we took him up on it.

Had a great time there thanks to Gordie.

Once again Gord, thanks. Will never forget you or what you did for us.

Our sincere condolences to Gord’s entire family

“ Family events will never be the same without Uncle Gord. I'll miss his playful bantering, his smile, his gentle kisses and his big warm hugs.

To Aunt Fran, Mark, Michelle, Dianne and families, may God's unfailing love surround you all, bring you comfort and peace as you journey through this time of grief. Much love always ❤️ “ Fran, Mark, Michelle and family.. we are so sorry for you loss. I (Deb) remember Gord playing baseball against my dad (chicken wing as he called him lol). He definitely made the game exciting and yes...bleachers were always full when they played. He was a strong presence in town with a very giving heart and will never be forgotten. Cherish your memories of your Husband, Father and Grandfather. Our thoughts are with you all during this tough time.

“ Our most sincerest condolences to Mark & the entire Childs family and friends. Our Dads were the old school type but more importantly were builders of this little town they so loved. The generosity your Dad showed was second to none. His legend will live on thru an amazing family. May you Rest in Peace Gord, you have earned it.

*We have very fond memories of our times we spent with Gord and Fran.
By car, boat or motor home it was always a great time.
We feel very blessed to have shared in those times with him.
He has touched so many people and will be remembered.
We send our very deepest condolences to Fran, Mark, Michelle and all their families.
Rest In Peace Gord.*

*Uncle Gord to my family was a man of character who loved his community of Wallaceburg. He often spoke fondly of his loving wife and great kids.
He loved to tease my Mom but in a fun loving way.
May God watch over him and his clan!!
Love Bob and Lorna Smith and Family, Mississauga.*
