

Gordon Van Dommelen

June 14, 2021

Peacefully and gently surrounded by his children during his last few days of his life, Gordon Van Dommelen left us to join his heavenly family on Monday, June 14, 2021 at CKHA. He will be deeply missed here on earth in our hearts and minds by all who knew him as we give thanks for his life. Gordon reunited with his loving wife Catherine Van Dommelen (2007) in heaven to be together for eternity. Gordon is survived by his five children Diane (Julius) Pozsgai, Mary (Paul) Caron, Janice (Dan) Mandeville, Stephen Van Dommelen, Laurel Van Dommelen. Grandfather of Caroline, Renee, Elizabeth, Kristopher, Katelyn and the late Jonathan (2020)(Mary Jane) and great grandfather of Maria-Theresa, Victoria, Alexandria, Mackenzie, Anderson, Leah, Bryce, Mason, Emma, Scarlett and the late Lincoln (2015). Gordon was predeceased by his parents Albert and Annie (Seys) Van Dommelen and brother Elmer (Estella). He is survived by his brother John (Cathie). Gordon was a long-standing member of the Our Lady Help of Christians Catholic Church. He lived his whole life on the Arnold Road Family Farm. He was a true farmer at heart even until the end when he was legally blind he still wanted to be driven by the fields to check on the crops. “ Hello cousins, Jeff and Bev and Uncle Bernard send along our condolences for your loss. Uncle Gordon was very gentle, kind man who was very devoted to his church and the Holy Mass and Farming, of course. All us cousins on the Burm side enjoyed going to Tante Cathy and Uncle Gordon’s place. Lots of laughs and fond memories together. God bless you all. Love 💕💕

“ I remember the first time I met Gordon last year on Father's Day. I went with his daughter Laurel to visit him at the home farm in Wallaceburg and he was so polite, kind, easy to talk to and down to earth. He loved to talk about farming!! He reminded me so much of how my own dad was.
