

Heather Blake

February 22, 2015

It is with profound sadness and loss that we announce the passing of Heather Lynn Blake, a mother, wife, daughter, sister, aunt, friend and one of the kindest, most gentle souls ever to grace this world. Heather passed away at the age of 47 at her home in Wallaceburg on Sunday, February 22, 2015. She leaves behind her husband of 24 years, Jim, her beloved son Brett and stepchildren Jim of Wallaceburg and Shannon of Victoria, B.C.. Heather was the daughter of Nancy and (the late) Bruce McCorkell of Harwich Twp. She leaves behind sisters Charlene, Darlene and Laura; and brothers David and Kelly. She was predeceased by brothers Scott and Bradley. She loved the sun, boating and being outdoors as long as it wasn't "too coldy." She loved to read, watch television and spend time with her family. She loved her cottage on Lake Nosbonsing. She was the most competitive non-competitive person ever. She loved watching curling, baseball, football and auto racing. Heather had a strong sense of humour that would catch you when you least expected it. Her amazing blue eyes were the windows to a soul which was far too fragile for the things life threw at her. Twice a cancer survivor, she greeted everyone with a warm smile and a genuine interest in their well-being, regardless of what was returned. She didn't ever seek the spotlight, but stepped into it to co-chair the first United Way campaign to ever raise $2 million dollars. If someone needed help, she would be there. Heather will be missed by her many customers and business contacts at The Chatham Daily News where she worked for more than two decades. She loved, and in return she was loved more than she ever knew. A celebration of Heather's life will be held at the CAVANAGH RECEPTION CENTRE, 416 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg on Friday, February 27 at 1:30 PM. A time of fellowship and refreshment will follow. Donations to the Canadian Cancer Society and Heart and Stroke Foundation of Ontario would be appreciated. Online tributes may be left at www.CavanaghFuneralHome.ca . HAYCOCK-CAVANAGH FUNERAL HOME, 409 Nelson Street in Wallaceburg entrusted with arrangements 519.627.3231.

“ Jim and family
So sorry for your loss. My thought and prayers are with you and your whole family. I worked with Heather many years ago at The Chatham Daily News. We were pregnant at the same time with our boys. She was a very kind and friendly person. I haven't seen Heather for a few years but we would occasionally run into each other from time to time. Words can just express my sorry..
Sincerely,
Jill Misselbrook

I never forgot Brad and Scotty, we had our times. Of course I won't forget my Chevy instructions! Mom, you made this all work. Be at peace. “ Jim, Brett and family, Words cannot begin to express how heartbroken we are to learn of Heather's passing. She was a beautiful, funny, caring woman who became a special friend to our family. As you grieve, please know that we are here to support you, that we will be thinking of you and that we will be honoring Heather's memory. We will forever remember how proud she was of Barry for getting his first cell phone last summer. We will truly miss her!

“ I worked with Heather and knew her to be the most friendly and helpful person at the news. Her passing is a loss to the world but God must have needed her. She will be missed by everyone here but will live on in the love of her family and friends.

“ Dear Jim and family: Heather was a beautiful person and was gifted with a very special spirit.

I was fortunate to have worked with her twice in my career at the Daily News. Her smile and positive energy made a difference in our lives.

Back in her composing days at the CDN circa 1990, it was a miracle she could follow Jim's page layouts...It was a special brand of chicken scratch.....must have been the bond that brought you two together!

In the twilight of my CDN career, I affectionately called her "dummy girl". I've never worked with an ad rep who was so agreeable to moving ads off prime news package.

You will be missed, Heather. The memory of your amazing smile will live on.

Always a twinkle in your eye, always willing to listen. Miss you already Heather and I know we will for many a day to come. You watched and shared my family growth and always considered you my friend too.
