God Bless you all at this sad time. May you be comforted by knowing that she is in heaven with all of her angels surrounding her, while she is looking down on her family with love.

“ It was such an honour to be a part of Helena's life. She brought me such joy. Murdock Mysteries were often on tv when I was there and we would yell at the dr. When she'd kiss our William. In mornings I'd sing part of shine on harvest moon to her (the reason is our secret...lol). My favorite part of seeing Helena was that beautiful smile. Rest in peace my friend.

“ There is no doubt in my mind that God has already asked Aunt Helen to whip up a few dozen of her famous buttermilk tarts. Although we always knew they were delicious, they are heavenly now. Rest in peace sweet lady.

“ Aunt Helen always had a smile on her face. She was my favorite aunt and was always thinking of other people before herself. The best memories I had of her was when I was in my teens going up to the restaurant in Haliburton numerous times with Grandpa and Grandma and my parents for March break and summer vacation.

Deepest sympathy to Julie and Patsy and their husbands and the rest of the family.

“ How do you sum up the Best memories of such a Great Grandma? To pick one would be impossible... Growing up I had so much fun with " big Grandma". From summer camping trips in the trailer, her impossible yet dedicated efforts to try and teach me to knit, she was the BEST butter tart maker and always went out of her way to put on a big meal no matter what the occasion. When she made her famous rice pudding for desert she would always pick the gross raisins out for me and place a special bowl aside.

Grandma made me several comfy afghans throughout the years and when my children(her great grandchildren) came around she did as well.

She was not afraid of hard work, never mattered what member of the family it was or how far the distance,if someone was moving and there was walls to be washed or organizing to be done...she was there.

She had a soft, loving heart. And always a open ear. And every grandchild I'm sure can remember falling asleep a time or two on her " big comfy pillows" as she'd say, while laying in her lap.

She never said no to sleepovers and many nights were spent sleeping in grandpa s old t-shirts.

In the morning she'd always stay in bed extra long for us to sneak coffee while she yelled down the hall " Donald your not giving those kids coffee are you?"

She was always the first the start clearing the table and the last to finish in the kitchen long after everyone sat in their chairs full from her delicious meals.

She never lost her sense of humor and could make a wise crack and have a smile on your face within 15 minutes of being in the door.

After papa passed she found companionship with a good friend Bob; whom made her days full of joy and laughter and her evenings more enjoyable and tolerable.

When I last visited with her, a week before her passing she was still smiling and wise cracking about " the world going to shit in a basket" and expressing her sadness to all the pain and suffering in the world and the ones who were hurt by the recent world events.

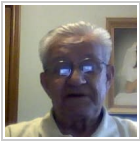

*She was a lover, a giver, the best hugger, and she cared for everyone before herself.
I will miss her everyday forward and try to honor her by up holding the same values and beliefs she showed to each one of us, her family..with kindness, compassion, generosity and of course a whole lot of love.
I love and miss you Grandma.
Love Kristy.*
